

CURRICULUM VITAE

1. Family name: Rusnak
2. First names: Martin
3. Date of birth: 14th March, 1951
4. Nationality: Slovak
5. Civil status: Married

6. Education:

Institution (Date from - Date to)	Degree(s) or Diploma(s) obtained:
Medical Faculty, University of Novi Sad, Serbia 12/2012	Visiting Professor of Public Health
University of Scranton, Scranton, USA	Associated Professor
Trnava University, Faculty of Health and Social Services 1/2008	Full Professor of Public Health
Trnava University, Faculty of Health and Social Services 5/1996 – 1/2006	Docent
Slovak Academy of Sciences, Bratislava, Czechoslovakia 5/1978 - 7/1981	CSc. (Candidate of Sciences – equiv. to PhD)
School of Medicine (University), Bratislava, Czechoslovakia 9/1969 - 6/1975	MUDr. (MD)

7. Language skills: Indicate competence on a scale of 1 to 5 (1 - excellent; 5 - basic)

Language	Reading	Speaking	Writing
Slovak	Mother Tongue
English	1	1	1
Czech	1	1	1
Russian	1	1	1
Polish	2	2	2
German	3	2	3
Serbian/Croatian	1	2	3

8. Membership of professional bodies:

- 2017 – on-going: European Center for Disease Prevention and Control (ECDC), member of expert panel, Stockholm, Sweden
- 2016 – on-going: Upsilon Phi Delta Society, An association of University Programs in Health Administration Administrative Program, USA
- 2013 – on-going: Member of the Scientific Editorial Board, Our Dermatology Online journal, Poland
- 2012 – on-going: Member of the Scientific Editorial Board, Scientific World Journal, Hindawi Publishing Corp., Egypt, USA
- 2010 – 2014: Member of the Scientific Editorial Board, Journal of Ecology and Health, Poland.
- 2005 – 2014: National Institute of Quality and Innovations, Member of the Board
- 2000 – on-going: Austrian Society for Public Health, Member
- 1998 – on-going: Member of The Federation for International Cooperation of Health Services and Systems Research Centers (FICOSSER),
- 2000 – on-going: EuroSafe – a part of European Consumer Safety Organization,
- 1996 – 1999: Member of The Albert Schweitzer Institute for the Humanities in US
- 1992 – 2013: Fund for Prevention of Civilization Diseases, founder and chairman of the Board, Slovakia
- 1995 – 2001: Open Society Foundation, chairman of the medical board, Slovakia
- 1996 – on-going: Slovak Epidemiological Association, member
- 07/1995 – 07/1997: Member, Medical Advisory Board of the Open Society Institute, New York, USA
- 1995 – 1995: Secretary of the Coordination Committee for Health Development and Health Promotion, Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic
- 1994 – 94: Secretary of the Governmental Council for National Health Promotion, Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic
- 1992 – 93: Member of the Governmental Council for National Health Promotion, Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic

9. Other skills: (e.g. Computer literacy, etc.): Strong computer skills mainly in using the Microsoft Office Suite, statistical and database programs, web site development skills

10. Present position: Full Professor of Public Health, guaranteeing public health education, Faculty of Health Care and Social Work, Trnava University, Slovak Republic

11. Years within the firm: since 2006

12. Key qualifications:

- Strong management skills and management experiences, experienced in evaluating and monitoring programs in health and university education;
- 3 years of experience as a technical advisor in health policy and planning: 1993 – 1995: Secretary of the Coordination Committee for Health Development and Health Promotion, Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic, 1994 – 94: Secretary of the Governmental Council for National Health Promotion, Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic, 1992 – 93: Member of the Governmental Council for National Health Promotion, Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic. In these capacities I have led the Committee in planning health services, preventive and curative, amending legislation, programming and evaluation of activities for the sectors of health and social issues. I was responsible directly to the Minister of Health in Slovak Republic. In addition to that 2 years (1996-97) in the Ministry of Health in Croatia, implementing a the Antimicrobial Resistance Surveillance in Human Medicine, where the beneficiary was the MoH of Croatia and the overall topic was harmonizing policies towards the EU standards. 6 months on a project in Romania, developing health policies on access to health services for minorities. Altogether $3 + 2 + .5 = 5.5$ years
- 6 years of Team Leader experience in health reforms and modernisation: 24 months in Bosnia and Herzegovina, IPA Public Health Reform II Project, 10 months Technical Assistance for Licensing and Accreditation under Health sector modernization project, Albania, 9 months The Clinical Practice Guidelines as a Component of Quality in Health System in Albania, 20 months Educational and Medical Integration of Vulnerable Minority Groups with the Special Focus on Roma – Component 3: Health, Bulgaria, 10 years as the executive director and later on as the president of the Internationale Gesellschaft zur Erforschung von Hirntraumata, developing research based policies for the MoH in Austria and other countries of Central Europe.
- Since 2007 docent, later professor of Public Health, guaranteeing an educational track of Public Health. Department of Public Health, Faculty of Health Care and Social Work, Trnava University, Univerzitne nam. 1, 91843 Trnava, Slovak Republic, <http://fzasp.truni.sk/>. Teaching public health (health systems, health policies, health statistics) on undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral levels. WHO and EU policies are the basis for explaining international and national health strategies; Research in burden of injuries, injuries management, health systems, quality of health care, evidence based public health; International consulting in public health reform (Bosnia and Herzegovina), member of the ASPHER board on PhD studies, visiting professor at the Medical School of Novi Sad, Serbia, associated professor at the University of Scranton, USA. Publication track consists of over 100 articles in national and international journals, 3 monographies, member of editorial boards, peer-reviewer for international journals. (The list available on a request).
- Strong analytical and reporting skills and excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Health policy, health planning, health reform
- Public health change management
- Management and implementation of projects in the field of health reforms and modernisation
- Experiences in working within Ministries of Health
- Quality of care in hospitals focusing on accreditation of hospitals, including accreditation policies development, setting up accreditation standards, training and implementation
- Health and hospital information systems

13. Specific experience related to the project:

14. General professional experience

At least six (6) years of experience working as a senior clinician or senior administrator in a health care facility:

- Demonstrated experience in undertaking similar assignments in the past.
- Preferably, experience working at the national regulatory level
- Specific professional experience:
- Experience preparing clinical care pathways and clinical practice guidelines, preferably across the continuum of care.
- Experience developing clinical audit programmes at the facility level and preferably at the national level
- Experience carrying out clinical risk management

- Experience in coordinating and working with dynamic team to facilitate transfer of knowledge in related area
- Experience in working with the public health sector and preferably also the private health sector.
- Experience working in psychiatric disorders.
- Experience developing, implementing or training in quality improvement standards particularly in Primary Health Care in the Caribbean or other Small Island Development States.

Date from – date to	Location	Company	Position	Description
10/2015 – 6/2016	St Lucia	CEU Consulting, GmbH, Austria Mr. Derek Barker, derek.barker@gmail.com	Senior Consultant Clinical	The EU funded consultancy for the Ministry of Health in St Lucia. Specific components to be developed by the consultant are: Clinical Guidelines development and implementation, develop process of licensing for health care facilities, develop M&E processes for Quality Improvement initiatives on national level.
08-09/2015	Jamaica	CONSULGAL S.A., Jamaica Branch (reference: Mr. Mark Sadowski, mark.sadowski@ea134282.com)	Consultant	Training needs analysis for EU funded project Reduction of Maternal and Child Mortality (PROMAC) A comprehensive approach to meet training objectives has been developed and is based on a three (3) stage process as follows: Training Needs Assessment, On-the-Job Training, Learning By Doing Formal Training Sessions. Standardized questionnaire developed by the Consultant was used and interpreted in conjunction with focused discussions with representatives of the MoH and Regional Health Authorities. By applying this methodology, the Consultant assessed training needs both quantitatively and qualitatively. Data were aggregated to inform the development of a Training Needs Assessment Report.
9/2007 – cont.	Slovakia	Trnava University, Faculty of Health Care and Social Work (prof. J. Slany, dean, jaroslav.slany@truni.sk)	Full professor, guaranteeing the track of public health	Since 2007 docent, later professor of Public Health, guaranteeing an educational track of Public Health. Department of Public Health, Faculty of Health Care and Social Work, Trnava University, Univerzitne nam. 1, 91843 Trnava, Slovak Republic, http://fzasp.truni.sk/ . Teaching public health (health systems, health policies, health statistics) on undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral levels. WHO and EU policies are the basis for explaining international and national health strategies; Research in burden of injuries, injuries management, health systems, quality of health care, evidence based public health; International consulting in public health reform (Bosnia and Herzegovina), member of the ASPHER board on PhD studies, visiting professor at the Medical School of Novi Sad, Serbia, associated professor at the University of Scranton, USA. Publication track consists of over 100 articles in national and international journals, 3 monographies, member of editorial boards, peer-reviewer for international journals. (The list available on a request).
8/2013-01/2016	Sweden	European Center for Disease Control (ECDC) (Dr. Sergio Brusin, Surveillance Unit) Sergio.Brusin@ecdc.europa.eu	Consultant Donor: EU-ECDC	Team leader of the expert consultants to support the task of the ECDC Experts in the ECDC Work Programme – Defining EU surveillance system standards. The team collected information on surveillance standards from literature as well as grey literature sources, interviewed experts, analysed TESSy for gaps and suggested next steps in defining new standards. Assessing cost/benefits of MediSys News Aggregator in use for Epi Intelligence.
10/2014-12/2016	Spain	International and Ibero-American Foundation for Administration and Public	Consultant	Within the project "Further development and consolidation of the Mediterranean Programme for Intervention Epidemiology Training (MediPIET)", IfS/2013/329-859, CBRN Project 36. Among the Policies (Mr Jose Jaime de Domingo, jj.dedominbo@medipiet.eu)		tasks provide expertise, guidance, tools, pedagogic materials for ToT, support preparation of teaching modules. Consultant in International Health Regulations and CBRN, teaching in courses for epidemiologists within the framework of field epidemiology.

12/2011 – 11/2013	Bosnia and Herzegovina	CEU Consulting, GmbH, Austria Mr. Derek Barker, derek.barker@gmail.com	Team Leader, Key Expert 1	Main managerial, intellectual and conceptual responsibility for project outputs. Represents the consortium and the Technical Assistance team at all fora (Project Steering Committee, beneficiary and stakeholder meetings / workshops / roundtable / conferences). Functions as the single contact point for the project in all interactions with the EUD and beneficiaries. As Public Health Reform specialist being responsible for International Health Regulations, Early Warning System for notifiable diseases and EUROHIS.
2012 - 2013	Slovak Republic	Ecorys, Martin Wegele, Research Manager, 32 2 743 85 65, martin.wegele@be.ecorys.com	Rapporteur Donor: EU HOME/2011/I/SEC/PR/047-A2	Within the Study on Corruption in the Healthcare Sector, 5 days. I was responsible for reporting on situation in Slovakia for the country fiche. The report comprised brief description of the organisation health system and organisations involved in combatting fraude & corruption; patterns of corruption; and activities for prevention and control of corruption. I did and summarized number of interviews with key stakeholders, desk research, data collection, reporting in country fiche. Study published http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/home-affairs/what-is-new/news/news/2013/20131219_01_en.htm
08/2010 – 10/2010	Sweden	European Center for Disease Control (ECDC) (Dr. Sergio Brusin, Surveillance Unit) Sergio.Brusin@ecdc.europa.eu	Consultant Donor: EU-ECDC	Collect relevant international literature for the development of a tool to benchmark performances of CD surveillance systems and improve quality. Literature search and analysis, formulation of recommendations.
Since 05/2010	Kenya	Teaching in Health Training College (Dr. Everlyn Musangi, Principal, everlynmusangi@yahoo.com)	Project Support Donor: Ministry of Education, Slovakia	Support health and health care development in the region of Kwale; and Teaching in Health Training College, Msambweni.
Since 12/2010	Slovakia	SAIA, Project Leonardo (PhDr. Mária Paveleková, Transfer of innovations) maria.pavelekova@saia.sk	Team Leader Donor: EU Leonardo funding scheme	Under the project Capacity building of Human Resource for Health, tasks included – responsible for developing educational curricula for university degree in tropical public health and social work in cooperation with the Royal Tropical Institute , Amsterdam and the Horizont 3000. As the project leader responsible for project planning, administration, international team of experts, local human resources, financial management and evaluation of project performance and outcomes.
10/2009 – 10/2011	South Sudan	SlovakAid Project: Hospital and Nursing Education Ing. Jana Koreňová, Jana.Korenova@slovakaid.sk	Team Leader Donor: Slovak Ministry of Foreign Affairs	Support for the hospital and nursing education in Mapuordit – supervision of the project activities, coordination among departments, supervising project management, budgeting, quality control. Implementing experiences in working in multicultural teams, and from overseas assignments in countries with development economies.
09/2010 – 12/2012	EU	Elisa Cavalcaselle,	Component on	Addiction Prevention within Roma and Sinti Communities, among the project responsibilities are managing the countries, project lead Bologna, Italy	International Relations, Cooperation and Projects Office, Bologna Elisa.Cavalcaselle@comun.e.bologna.it	Evaluation, Team leader of the Component Donor: EU Consumers and Health Agency	evaluation team composed of representatives from EU countries, supervising evaluation of the scientific quality, innovation and effectiveness, quality of the work, sustainability, transferability, and impact. Reporting. Building on experiences from working in multicultural teams.

05/2009 – 05/2010	Slovakia	EU COST Program Prof. David Ingleby J.D.Ingleby@uu.nl	Team Member Donor: EU program on cooperation in science	Health and Social Care for Migrants and Ethnic Minorities in Europe. Share experiences from national program, developing a curriculum on multicultural health literacy, networking, new projects development. Implementing experiences in working in multicultural teams.
03/2009 – 07/2010	Serbia	CEEN Consulting GMBh, Austria Mr. Derek Barker derek.barker@gmail.com	Technical Advisor Donor: EU PHARE funding scheme	Technical assistance to support the Reform of the Emergency Medical Service in Serbia, including evaluating the emergency medical services in Serbia compared to the situation in Slovakia; and consulting on health policies and evidence based approaches. The principal beneficiary was Serbian Ministry of Health. Among other responsibilities I was involved in drafting Technical Advice documents for EMS health policy development, planning of ambulances allocation within the framework of Serbian health system reform.
04/2009 – 03/2010	Albania	World Bank CEEN Consulting GMBh, Austria Mr. Derek Barker derek.barker@gmail.com	Team Leader Donor: The World Bank	Technical Assistance for Licensing and Accreditation under Public Health sector modernization project, including consultancy on accreditation processes and criteria. Managing of an international team of experts, liaising with the beneficiaries – Ministry of Health, Health Insurance Authority, Chamber of Physicians, School of Medicine. Overseeing development, planning and implementation of an accreditation system, legislation development in compliance with the EU requirements , information system design. Training trainers and future users, evaluation of effects, reporting. Supervising the development of the project's web site, including the internet based database to support the accreditation process. The project represented a significant component within the Albanian health policy development and health system reforms.
03/2008	Georgia	American people, through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and the University of Scranton, US	Consultant Donor: US AID	"Strengthening Healthcare Management Education in Georgia Project". Invited to teach in the area of research, scholarship and education development. Lecturing on health care reforms, evaluation of results, developing health policies and legislation. I talked on stewardship role of the MoH, discussed the concept, advocacy and planning required within the health care reform of Georgia.
01/2008 – 03/2009	Slovakia	European Center for Disease Control (ECDC) Public Health Consultants, Amsterdam, NL. Dr. Jaap Koot jkoot@nigz.nl	Consultant Donor: EU-ECDC	Consulting in the area of evidence based infection diseases management, infectious diseases policies on European level and socio-economic determinants. Developing EU strategies for increased safety, decreased inequalities and evidence based approaches in line with the EU policies.
11/2007 – 08/2008 (4man months)	Albania	CEEN Consulting GMBh, Austria Mr. Derek Barker	Team Leader Donor: The World Bank	The Clinical Practice Guidelines as a Component of Quality in Health System in Albania, under the Public Health sector modernization project. The primary beneficiary was the Albanian Ministry of Health. Tasks included Development and Implementation of Evidence Based Practice Guidelines for General Practice in Albania. Managing of an international team of experts, liaising with the beneficiaries – Ministry of Health, Health

		derek.barker@gmail.com		Insurance Authority, Chamber of Physicians, School of Medicine. Overseeing guidelines planning, development and implementation, training trainers and future users, evaluation of effects, reporting. The project directly corresponded with the overall health system planning and comprised a component within the reforms in Albania.
01/2006 – 12/2007	Croatia	Public Health Consultants, Amsterdam, NL. Dr. Jaap Koot jkoot@nigz.nl	Consultant Donor: Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs	Antimicrobial Resistance Surveillance in Human Medicine, through the EVD agency MPAP programme. Technical assistance for developing evidence based guidelines and protocols and data processing, and evaluation of existing guidelines using the AGREE instrument. The project contributed to developing patient safety policy within the health policy development and Croatian health system reform. Developing the project's web site.
06/2006 – 12/2007 (5,5 man months)	Bulgaria	CEEN Consulting GMBh, Austria Mr. Derek Barker derek.barker@gmail.com	Team Leader Donor: EU PHARE	Educational and Medical Integration of Vulnerable Minority Groups with the Special Focus on Roma – Component 3: Health. The assignment comprises evaluation of previous PHARE project activities in the field. Overall project management, coordination of local and international project experts from different cultural backgrounds (Bulgarians, Roma, Turks), liaising with the beneficiaries – Office for minorities of the Bulgarian government, Ministry of Health, EU Delegation in Bulgaria. Training the trainers, overseeing the quality of services, budgeting, reporting. Developing the project's web site. The project was directly reporting to the vice-premier and the minister of health and as such it was a component within the health policy and health system reforms. Because of the innovativeness the project addressed health planning activities, mostly on the level of health resources allocation.
01/2006 – 06/2006 (1,5 man months)	Romania	Netherlands Institute of Care and Welfare Dr. Pim de Graaf graaf@healthmatch.nl	Senior Consultant Donor: EU PHARE	Project “Assessment of the health status of Roma and the related health care needs” PHARE Twinning Light Project. Technical assistance in Epidemiology and Health Systems with specific component of an evaluation of previous activities' results. Final result was a technical advice on health policy development sustaining improved access to health services for minorities in Bulgaria, along with required amendments in undergoing health reforms and a change of financial mechanisms.
01/2004 – 12/2005	Slovakia	Public Health Consultants, Amsterdam, NL. Dr. Jaap Koot jkoot@nigz.nl	Consultant Donor: Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs	Building Quality Development Programme in Slovakia, the principal beneficiary Ministry of Health, Slovak Republic – support for issues of standards of care and education. Developing Evidence Based Guidelines, training in guidelines development and evaluation using the AGREE instrument. Developing policies of quality improvement based on guidelines, drafting health legislation in compliance with the EU requirements for the Ministry of Health. Implementing guidelines in pilot hospitals. Evaluation of effects. Reporting. The project was a part of a comprehensive health policy development program. The health planning activities were based on estimated human capacities needed to initiate the program within the health reforms scope of activities.
05/2005 – 06/2005	Kenya	Cordaid Mr. Wim Piels Wim.Piels@cordaid.nl	Consultant Donor: Cordaid	A Formulation Mission of a Diocese of Rumbek – Cordaid Health Programme in North And West Aweil County on health situation with special focus on refugees and IDPs.
09/2005	South Sudan	Cordaid Mr. Wim Piels Wim.Piels@cordaid.nl	Consultant Donor: Cordaid	Health Rehabilitation Inventory and Identification North and West Aweil. Fact finding mission on health situation with special focus on refugees and IDPs followed by project proposal drafting.
06/2004 – 07/2004	Mexico	Universitas Iberoamericana	Workshop	Delivering a workshop on community prevention of injuries and violence.

		Prof. Daniel West westd1@UofS.edu	Donor: US AID
11/2002 – 11/2005	Bosnia-Herzegovina, Macedonia, Croatia	International Neurotrauma Research Organisation (INRO) Prof. Dr. Walter Mauritz walter.mauritz@auva.at Mrs. Alexandra Brazinova abrazinova@igeh.org	Project Coordinator and Principal Investigator Donor: EU Frame Work Program	Project “Copernicus 2 – BALKAN REINTEGRATION - EU 5th Framework Program - Reducing mortality and long-term disability of TBI victims through research into treatment procedures used in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Macedonia and Croatia” . The project’s beneficiaries were major hospitals and Clinical Centres in the countries after the war. Thus the project has had significant policy dimension, where the trauma policies were addressed, formulated and consensed. Providing advisory service and further discussions on health policy issues to the MoHs in the Balkan region . As trauma represented an important proportion of burden from mortality and disability, the policy became a component within the health reforms activities in respective countries .
09/2003 – 10/2003	Estonia	Public Health Consultants, Amsterdam, NL. Dr. Jaap Koot jkoot@nigz.nl	Consultant Donor: Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs	Developing Terms of Reference for Strengthening of the Estonian capacity in the control of communicable diseases and harmonizing national policies and legislation with the EU requirements . The principal beneficiary was the Ministry of Health in Estonia. The TOR were subsequently used to launch a project in health system reform.
01/2002 – 08/2003	Slovakia	Public Health Consultants, Amsterdam, NL. Dr. Jaap Koot jkoot@nigz.nl	Consultant Donor: Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs	Promotion of Patients’ Rights in Slovakia. As a member of international team he was responsible for liaising with the Ministry of Health, Non Governmental Organizations and Universities in Slovakia. Participated on development teaching materials and asked to join the group working on European Charter of Patients’ Rights as an co-author . The document affects health policies in most of the countries of Europe these days.
08/1997 – 10/2001	Hungary, Slovakia, Croatia, Slovenia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania	International Neurotrauma Research Organisation (INRO) Prof. Dr. Walter Mauritz walter.mauritz@auva.at Mrs. Alexandra Brazinova abrazinova@igeh.org	Consultant Donors: Austrian National Bank, Ala and Ralph Isham Foundation	Project “Evidence Based Management of Severe Traumatic Brain Injury” - responsible for quality control, data collection and data processing. Evaluated and assessed the quality of reporting from member hospitals as well as for developing training events on Evidence Based TBI management at local and national levels. In close contact with the Ministries of Health attempts to develop national guidelines policies were executed.
01/1999 – 12/2000	Slovakia	ENERGOINFO, Spain tundeszabo@tundeszabo.com Mrs. Martina Kollarova	Consultant Donor: EU PHARE	Finance and Primary Health Care project to assist the Ministry of Health in Slovakia in developing primary care focus health policies along with financial tools . Developing and implementing guidelines for pilot diseases and evaluating the results. In cooperation with health insurance companies developing new financial incentives in the field. Establishing the Healthcare Quality and Accreditation process, implementing WHO guidelines in the planning of human resources in healthcare and strengthening the role of Public Health . The project represented principal component within the health care reform in Slovak Republic. It comprised planning for resource allocation (human and financial), health policy amendments

		(director of PHARE Programme Unit)		(legislative changes) as well as advocating for the changes.
11/1999 – present	Austria	International Neurotrauma Research Organisation (INRO) Prof. Dr. Walter Mauritz walter.mauritz@auva.at Mrs. Alexandra Brazinova abrazinova@igeh.org	Executive Director President of the Board of Directors	International Neurotrauma Research Organization (INRO) (Internationale Gesellschaft zur Erforschung von Hirntraumata – IGEH) In the position of the: Executive Director (11/1999 – 12/2006) President of the Board of Directors (01/2007 - present)
01/1997 – 12/2001	USA	Albert Schweitzer Institute for Humanities	Volunteer Consultant	As representative, working pro bono, I facilitated projects in Balkan (after the war) and in Moldova, providing contacts for people from the region and organise seminars, conferences, projects, which involve collaboration of local people with professionals from US and Western Europe.
11/1997 – 06/1999	USA	The Aitken Neurosciences Centre Mr. Peter Quinn, Executive Director pcq10@aol.com	Project Manager Donor: Open Society Foundation	The Aitken Neurosciences Centre, New York, USA, Project Manager for 8 countries in Europe. Duties: Providing managerial and consulting service, institutional strengthening and capacity building on public health topics and dealing with related problems: Organizing international site visits for hospitals in Eastern/ Central Europe; writing monthly reports, assisting in hospital research; delivering training to hospital staff and assisting in setting up of educational programmes. Improving communication of ANC: writing newsletter for hospitals; assisting in improvement of IT technologies and Internet services of the hospitals; PR activities of ANC and communication with media in Eastern/ Central Europe, etc.
09/1997 – 04/1999 (5,5 man months)	Slovakia USA	USAID Camp Dresser & Mc Kee International (CDM) Tel: 703 247 8730	Country Coordinator	Environmental Health Project (based on the US AID Grant), Washington, USA, Country Coordinator for Slovakia. Providing services connected to the Environmental Health Curriculum Development for CDM in Slovakia/ International.
06/1995 – 11/1995 (5 man months)	USA	Healthcare Enterprise Incorporation (HEI) No contact person anymore	Director and Technical Advisor	Healthcare Enterprise Incorporation, Washington, USA, Resident Health Markets Project Office Director and Technical Advisor. Implementation of the Trnava Hospital Demonstration Project and management of the HEI's USAID funded and related activities in Slovakia.
02/1997 – present	Slovakia	Trnava University Prof. Dr. Vladimir Krcmery,	Teacher, Chair and Full Professor,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 02/1997 – 09/2006: Trnava University, School of Public Health, Associated Professor (part time), teaching public health policy development and biostatistics, curriculum development. • 10/2006 – 02/2012: Chair and Full Professor of Public Health, Trnava University, School of Public Health,

		Former Dean krcmery@vssvalzbety.sk Prof. Marek Smid, Elected President, marek.smid@truni.sk	Dean, Faculty of Health and Social Care	teaching public health policy development and biostatistics, curriculum development. • Since 2010: Dean, Faculty of Health and Social Care - responsible for managing the educational and research activities of the Faculty, mostly managerial and scientific supervision, budgeting, coordination of departments, human resources, project management, evaluation. Here I make use of strong management skills and management experience, strong analytical and reporting skills and excellent interpersonal and communication skills
01/1994 – 12/1997	Slovakia	USAID No contact person anymore	Consultant Donor: US AID	US AID sponsored projects for Slovak Republic, with participation from Poland, Romania. In a capacity of associated consultant I dealt mostly with projects of public health and hospital development. One project was on developing quality of care approaches in the hospital of Trnava, as well as developing the School of Public Health in Trnava. Responsible for liaising with the USAID and various Slovak institutions participating at the project.
1993 – 1995	Slovakia	National Center for Health Promotion The Institution was closed.	Director	Responsible for overall management of the organization, for cooperating with the Ministry of Health, for human resources, for budgeting and reporting to the Ministry. In cooperation with the Slovak government participated on developing and implementing public health policies within the National Program for Health Promotion.
06/1993 – 1995	Slovakia	National Center for Health Promotion	Secretary of the Committee to support population health of the Government of Slovak Republic	Secretary, Governmental Council for Health Promotion, Government of Slovak Republic, Slovakia. Planning health services, preventive and curative, amending legislation, programming and evaluation of activities for the sectors of health and social issues. The position required coordinating activities within the design of new health care reform, planning of services and monitoring the use. New legislative documents were developed, advocated for and eventually endorsed in the MoH and the parliament.
10/1992 – 12/1992	Switzerland	WHO Dr. H. R. Hapsara	Health Policy and IT Expert	Preparation of a document entitled "A review of Current Computer Modelling in Health". Detailed description of the following: Disease Models, Clinical Models, Morbidity and Mortality Models, Demographic Models, Risk Models, Resource Projection and Allocation Models, Over-all Health Policy Models.
1991 - 1993	Slovakia	Research Institute of Medical Informatics The Institution was closed.	Acting Director	Acting Director, Research Institute of Medical Informatics. Mostly research coordination, project development, planning and supervising.
1990 -1991	Slovakia	Medical Bionics Research Institute The Institution was closed.	Deputy Director	Deputy Director for R&D, Medical Bionics Research Institute. Mostly research coordination, project development, planning and supervising.
1988 -1991	Slovakia	Institute for Postgraduate Studies of Nurses The Institution was closed.	Head of Department	Head of the Department of Medical Informatics, Institute for Postgraduate Studies of Nurses. Teaching medical and health informatics to student nurses.
Since 1981	Slovakia	Institute for Medical Postgraduate Studies The Institution was closed.	Assistant Professor	Assistant Professor of Medicine, Department of Medical Informatics, School of Public Health, Inst. for Medical Postgraduate Studies.
1980 -1994	Switzerland, Denmark	Consultant No people whom I worked with are there	WHO	Technical support for projects on non communicable diseases. Developing guidelines for evidence based policies in the countries of WHO.
08/1980 – 12/1996	Slovakia	Centre of Medical	Chairman	Centre of Medical Informatics, Medical Bionics Research Institute. Mostly research coordination, project

		Informatics The Institution was closed.		development, planning and supervising.
08/1975 – 08/1980	Slovakia	Komensky University The head of the Department died	Assistant Professor	Assistant Professor of Medicine, Department of Internal Medicine, Komensky University. Clinical work.

15. Professional experience

16. Other relevant information (eg. publications):

List of publications available on request